

Friday, 2:00-3:30

The Layered Drawing - An Excellent Motivational Activity for All Levels

Claire Caldwell, Oak Mountain Intermediate

Target: All

Remember the Highlights Magazine "Hidden Pictures" pages? This awesome activity produces similar results and will take you from a "warm-up" drawing to a polished, multi-layered and multimedia drawing with both abstract and representational qualities, in five "steps or "layers." Experience the "AHA!" factor when the final layer is revealed!

Friday, October 24th, 3:45-5:15

That is SO Surreal!

Claire Caldwell, Oak Mountain Intermediate

Target: All

Learn how you can initiate stylistic tendencies, activities, and games practiced by Dada and Surrealist artists in your classroom! This creative hands-on workshop will utilize collage and montage, and will also show you how you can incorporate cooperative learning and language arts requirements at all levels! A favorite with students!

Saturday 9-10:35

Crayola Workshop

Target: All

Saturday 9-9:45

Way to Go, Mr. Leonardo

Nicki Linton, Moody Elementary

Target: K-3

An overview power point of the Birmingham Museum of Art exhibit, "Invention, Art and Science of Leonardo" along with student created inventions responding to this great artist and the connections made on their trip to the Museum of Art and the Museum of Flight! "Look and see" models, books, a Leonardo monologue and lesson plans.